About

The Santa Clarita Valley Mental Health Center (SCVMHC) is directly-operated by Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health.

Since 1974, SCVMHC has provided a range of mental health services to individuals 18 years of age and older who are experiencing symptoms of mental illness. Our center has been at our current location, 23501 Cinema Drive, Valencia, CA, since 2008.

The Staff

Services are provided by a well-trained, and experienced multi-disciplinary treatment team including: psychiatrists, psychologists, nurses, psychiatric technicians, clinical social workers, medical case workers, community workers, occupational therapists, and substance abuse counselors.

Services Offered

- Mental health information and referrals
- Mental health assessment
- Crisis intervention, evaluation for 5150
- Individual treatment
- Group treatment
- Case management
- Co-occurring disorder treatment (mental health/substance abuse)
- Medication management
- Psychological evaluation
- Vocational assessment and counseling
- Occupational assessment and counseling

Language Capability

Services are available in: English, Spanish, Russian, Armenian, Farsi, and Hindi.

Our Commitment

We are committed to your wellness. We believe in hope and focusing on the whole person and their abilities, rather than on their illness and disability. We individualize services and treatment based on a person's goals and needs. We promote empowerment and we support self-determination. We know individuals can recover from their mental illness and reclaim their hopes, dreams and aspirations. We believe in you.

Meeting Location for Community Partners

SCVMHC hosts the National Alliance for Mental Illness (NAMI) SCV chapter meetings for English and Spanish speaking groups, both of which are open to members of the community. Several 12-step community groups hold their meetings at the center as well.
